Grading:

Students are expected to read all resources, participate in all class discussions, and complete all assignments as scheduled. If you are experiencing difficulty completing an assignment for any reason, you must contact me BEFORE the assignment is due. Evaluation of student progress will be ongoing and will be determined in the following manner:

Weekly Discussions:	15%
Minor Assignments:	35%
Case Study #1:	25%
Case Study #2:	25%

A	90-100
B+	86-89
B	80-85

C	70 -74
D+	73-67
D	66 - 69
F	Below 65

Weekly Discussions:

Every week a discussion topic will be assigned. It will be available to you on Mondays. Please turn in your original post by Friday of that week. Then take the time to respond to at least TWO posts from your classmates by the following Monday at 11:59pm. You must complete all 3 components for your discussion question to receive full credit for the week. The discussions will correlate with the textbook so be prepared to read one chapter per week.

Minor Assignments:

There are a total of 6 minor assignments. You will read/watch supplemental material and answer questions. One assignment requires you to research your own article/video. You will also be asked to analyze fictitious children as case studies. The assignments will unlock at least 4 weeks prior to their due date to provide ample time for completion.

Case Studies:

You will complete two case studies in this course. The first one will be a formal assessment that you will complete during the first half of the semester. This assessment will be learning based. The second half of the semester you will complete an informal assessment. This will be a behavior based project. Read the assignment directions fully. An example will also be provided. It is only an example. You are free to choose your student and specific assessment you would like to implement. No part of the example should be used in your own work.

Communication Statement:

The Rutgers University- Camden Masters of Arts in Teaching Program seeks to prepare pre-service professionals who are proficient in both written and oral communication. Grades in our professional preparation courses will, therefore, reflect both mastery of content and the ability to convey the content in Standard English.

** You should be aware that consideration related to mechanics of the written word such as spelling, grammar, and organization as well as style and usage will play a significant role in the determination of your grade on written assignments.

Accommodations:

Rutgers University welcomes students with disabilities into all of the university's educational programs. Students who have a diagnosed disability on file with the Office of Disability Services may be eligible for accommodations as specified by the University. Please contact the Office of Disability Services at 856-225-6442 if you need to begin the process of receiving accommodations. Students who do not have a letter of accommodations from the University will not be eligible to receive accommodations in this course.

Code of Student Conduct:

Rutgers University-Camden, seeks a community that is free from violence, threats, and intimidation; that is respectful of the rights, opportunities, and welfare of students, faculty, staff, and guests of the University; and that does not threaten the physical or mental health or safety of members of the University community and includes classroom space.

As a student at the University you are expected to adhere to the Student Code of Conduct. To review the <https://deanofstudents.camden.rutgers.edu/student-conduct>

Note that the conduct code specifically addresses disruptive classroom conduct, which means "engaging in behavior that substantially or repeatedly interrupts either the instructor's ability to teach or student learning. The classroom extends to any setting where a student is engaged in work toward academic credit or satisfaction of program-based requirements or related activities."

CARES
